Dear Parents / Carers,

6th June 2025

We are pleased to share with you our planned staffing structure for the upcoming academic year.

This term we say goodbye to Mrs. Norsworthy as she moves across to our sister school, Dunton Green for a year to teach their Year 6 class. Mrs. Norsworthy joined St Edmund's in 2020, just before we went into lockdown and has prepared many of our Year 6 pupils for Year 7 and she will share this expertise with Dunton Green. We also wish Mrs. Woodhams, who joined us earlier this year to teach Year 1, well as she leaves us to embark on a new teaching opportunity.

St. Edmund's will be welcoming two new teachers in September, Mr. Nicholls joined us at the beginning of this year where he started his teacher training and will be returning to St. Edmund's to join the teaching team. We are also welcoming Miss Jowett who taught in Kent primary schools before travelling out to Malaysia where she has been teaching in an international school and we welcome back Miss McGill who is now Mrs. Harvey, who is returning to us from her maternity leave.

Please see our staffing structure for September 2025

Reception – Sapphire Class	Mrs. S. Temp
Year 1 - Topaz Class	Mrs. N. Harvey / Mrs. J. Smith
Year 2 - Crystal Class	Miss M. Boyle
Year 3 - Ruby Class	Miss C. Jowett
Year 4 - Diamond Class	Miss E. Savage
Year 5 - Emerald Class	Mr. P. Nicholls
Year 6 - Amethyst Class	Miss M. Elvidge / Mr. W. Ledger

Mr. Ledger will be taking on the role of Assistant Head of School where he will lead on teaching and learning, and I will continue in my role of Head of School where I will lead the day-to-day organisation and strategic planning in making sure that our Christian and inclusive vision and values are at the forefront in the development of our school.

Mr. Hulme will continue in his role as the Executive Headteacher covering St. Edmund's, St. Paul's and Dunton Green in a strategic capacity, holding the Heads of School to account and ensuring that the culture, vision and values of the federation remain at the highest possible standard. He will also be continuing with his role of CEO across the Medway Anglican School Trust and look for further opportunities for the schools to collaborate and learn from each other.

Best wishes,

Mrs. R. Stoneham
Head of School
